

Fall Testing Information for Juniors

PSAT/NMSQT (Class of 2022)

Due to the changes in schooling last spring and the subsequent cancellation of the Colorado School Day SAT and PSAT-10, College Board and CDE (Colorado Department of Education) are offering a free school-based PSAT/NMSQT for juniors.

PSAT/NMSQT (PSAT/National Merit Scholar Qualifying Test)

- WHO: Juniors (Class of 2022)
- WHERE: Pine Creek High School (in-person, in-building)
- WHEN: Wednesday, October 14, 2020
 - Testing begins promptly at 7:45 a.m.
 - All classes for all grade levels will not be held on Wed., Oct. 14th due to the PSAT/NMSQT test administration for juniors.
 - Buses will run at normal time in the morning and will depart PCHS at 12:00 p.m.
 - Note: Students who have an accommodation of extended time will need to make their own transportation arrangements.
- DETAILS:
 - Students do not need to register.
 - There is no fee for the PSAT/NMSQT test.
 - Only juniors participating in the PSAT/NMSQT administration will be in the building on test day; this will allow for social distancing and approximately 10-12 students per classroom for testing.
 - The PSAT/NMSQT for juniors is optional and not required for any student. If you do not want to take the PSAT/NMSQT, please opt-out of the test by emailing the School Assessment Coordinator (T.J. Airhart) at teresa.airhart@asd20.org.
 - For more information on the PSAT/NMSQT, go to www.collegeboard.org, or click here.

You will receive more information soon regarding testing days and other pertinent information as it becomes available. If you have questions, please feel free to contact the School Assessment Coordinator, T.J. Airhart, at teresa.airhart@asd20.org.
